St Paul – The Apostle to the Gentiles: St Paul, originally known as Saul, was born in Tarsus of Asia Minor. He was the son of a Pharisee, deeply rooted in the Jewish faith, and himself a Pharisee of great zeal. Well educated in Jerusalem, Paul became a formidable rabbi, trained under the best teachers of his time. His early life was marked by a fierce commitment to the Law, which at first led him to oppose the followers of Christ.

On his way to Damascus, intending to arrest Christians and bring them to Jerusalem, Saul encountered the Risen Lord. This meeting transformed his life: the persecutor became the apostle, the enemy of Christ became his most passionate witness. From then on, Paul was no longer Saul but Paul, the chosen instrument to bring the Gospel to the Gentiles.

Paul's missionary journeys were extraordinary. He travelled over 16,000 kilometers by land and sea, bringing the Good News from Jerusalem and Antioch to Cyprus, Asia Minor, Greece, and finally to Rome—the very heart of the empire. Along the way, he endured hardships: beaten, flogged, imprisoned, and finally martyred in Rome. Yet, nothing could silence his voice or extinguish his zeal.

Through his letters, Paul remained close to the communities he founded. He was not only a bold missionary but also a caring pastor and teacher, encouraging believers, correcting errors, and appointing leaders to ensure the growth of the early Church. His words still echo today: "Woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel!" (1 Corinthians 9:16).

St Paul's life is a testimony of conversion, mission, and unwavering faith. From his zeal for the Law to his burning love for Christ, he shows us that no past is too broken to be transformed by God's grace. His example challenges us to be courageous witnesses of the Gospel in our own time and to carry the Good News to the people around us, just as he carried it to the ends of the earth. Fr Nhân Le
